UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

LIEUTENANT COLONEL BRIAN L. HARDEMAN

Lieutenant Colonel Brian "20" L. Hardeman is the Commander of Detachment 1, 1st Air Force, Canadian Forces Base Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. Detachment 1 is assigned to the 1 Canadian Air Division and Canadian North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD) Region Headquarters in support of the bi-national NORAD agreement between the governments of the United States and Canada. Lt Col Hardeman is responsible to provide 24/7 U.S. communications links, as well as Fighter, Logistics, Intelligence and Air Battle Management functional support to the Canadian NORAD Region mission as well as administrative personnel support to a USAF Brigadier General assigned as the Deputy Commander, Canadian NORAD Region. Additionally, he serves as the Division Chief to the 1 Canadian Air Division Combined Air Operations Center (CAOC) Standards and Evaluation Division in support of NORAD and Canadian Joint Operations Command missions.

Lt Col Hardeman entered the Air Force in 1987 as an enlisted member. He served 13 years as a Loadmaster and Flight Engineer on the C-141B and C-17A aircraft amassing over 5,200 hours. He served as an instructor and evaluator, and held airdrop (heavy/personnel), Container Delivery System, Navy Seal Boat Drop, and Special Operations Low Level II qualifications. He received his commission in May 2000 from Officer Training School at Maxwell AFB, Alabama. In 2001, he graduated from Undergraduate Air Battle Manager training at Tyndall AFB, Florida. His first operational assignment was to the 611th Air Control Squadron, Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, where he served in several positions. Lt Col Hardeman was then assigned to Tinker AFB, Oklahoma, where he filled positions such as Weapons and Tactics Officer, Formal Training Unit Instructor, Assistant Flight Commander, Flight Commander, Executive Officer, and Chief of Standardization and Evaluation. Additionally, he served as an Exchange Officer with the Royal Canadian Air Force as Director of Operations and Deputy Commander of a Radar Squadron, and as a staff officer at Headquarters Air Combat Command. As a Senior Enlisted Aircrew member and Senior Air Battle Manager, Lt Col Hardeman has flown in numerous wartime, contingency, and joint staff directed operations to include the invasion of Panama, Operations DESERT SHIELD, DESERT STORM, PROVIDE COMFORT, RESTORE HOPE, NORTHERN WATCH, SOUTHERN WATCH, NOBLE EAGLE, IRAQI FREEDOM, ENDURING FREEDOM, to name a few, and commanded combat sorties during Operation INHERENT RESOLVE as a Mission Crew Commander. Prior to his current position, Lt Col Hardeman was an Assistant Director of Operations for the 960th Airborne Air Control Squadron, Tinker AFB, Oklahoma.
